In order to pay off his debt, her father has agreed to leave us alone. Now, I've got her in a cabin all to myself, and by the time we leave, she's no longer going to be a virgin, and she's going to be pregnant with my child. I want to own every single part of her, including her heart.

I want Ava as my wife, the mother of my children, because she is the love of my life, and I'm done waiting to claim her.

Ava

Being alone with Mitch is a dream come true. There's no one else I could ever want. When I read romance books, I imagine him as the hero. So when he touches me, kisses me, and makes me promises, they're all I've ever wanted. When he looks at me, I feel like I'm the only woman in the world. His touch sets my body on fire, and I can't stop myself.

But, will he want me when he finds out I'm pregnant? He's not told me he loves me, so can he really want to share his life with me?
