The story takes place in multiple settings, the first of which is heaven. Mephistopheles makes a bet with God - he says that he can lure God's favorite human being - Faust, who is striving to learn everything that can be known, away from righteous pursuits. In Faust, Goethe focuses on social phenomena such as psychology, history and politics, in addition to mystical and philosophical topics. In contrast to Faust Part One, in Part Two, the focus is no longer on the soul of Faust, which has been sold to the devil, but rather on social phenomena such as psychology, history and politics, in addition to mystical and philosophical topics.
