Nothing in Sydney Hayward's background of wealth and privilege had prepared her to take the helm of her grandfather's business. Her new responsibilities leave no time for complications. Sydney has learned the hard way that she could never trust anyone, but her tenant Mikhail is hard to resist. Down-to-earth, yet stubborn, he comes from a world utterly different from her own. She doesn't have room in her life for romance—but Mikhail seems to know exactly how to win her over...one smoldering kiss at a time.

The regular type of help documentation is really a hard copy manual that's printed, nicely bound, and functional. It operates as a reference manual - skim the TOC or index, get the page, and stick to the directions detail by detail. The challenge using these sorts of documents is the fact that user manuals can often become jumbled and hard to understand. And in order to fix this problem, writers can try and employ things I call "go over here" ways to minimize the wordiness and simplify this content. I've found this approach to be extremely ineffective most of the time. Why? Because luring a lady are considered unsuitable to get flipped through ten times for just one task. That is what online assistance is for.
