Growing up, Hollywood Superstar Tate Prescott was just my older brother's best friend, but over the years he became my first love... and when we eloped, my biggest secret.

After my little brother drowned at sea and I became wrapped up in the guilt of knowing that his death was my fault, I shut down... and Tate left when I needed him the most.

Four months have passed since then, and now Tate's back, demanding that I give him thirty days to make our relationship work. He wants a second chance to prove to me that he can win back my heart.

I still want him. I still love him. But can I forgive him for abandoning me?
