He's a world-renowned plastic surgeon living the dream on the sunny beaches of California, making the world beautiful one person at a time. But one day he wakes up to find his life is empty. He knows it's time to go home. So he leaves the sunny California shore and heads home to rainy Seattle, Washington.

Playing Frisbee in the park with his brothers, his back is used as a launching pad for an overgrown dog. When the owner of the dog bounces off his back and falls at his feet, he might start believing in love at first sight. The girl gives him a sassy look and refuses to give her name, but he knows he must have her. And so the chase begins.

Patsy Lander has a great life: family, friends, and a career she's just beginning in the magical world of plastics where she can take something broken and make it whole again. Then she meets her arrogant teacher, and her carefully laid plans are thrown out the window. She can fight the chemistry all day long, but at the end of the day, Kyle might have more to teach her than just how to hold a scalpel.
