But there's no denying the attraction she feels toward him.

Doc uses women. He has no reason to have them in his life other than to fk them. The moment he sees Jo, he wants her, and what's more, he knows she wants him.

There's no one stopping them from having a bit of fun, pure fg, nothing complicated. But Doc's not used to enjoying a woman's company. Jo doesn't take any st, and before long, he wants to keep her all to himself.

For Jo, she's terrified. She's pregnant with the biker's baby, but how can she tell him? This was about using each other, not about commitment. Is there any chance they can find love and not just for the sake of the baby?
