Download or Read Online The Beginner's Guide to Exotic Chameleon Care David Haggett Free eBook PDF/ePub/Mobi/Mp3/Txt, Chameleons are fascinating creatures, so it is small wonder that they are becoming increasingly popular as pets. If you are thinking of buying one, why not download this book to see whether you will be able to provide the conditions needed?

Chameleons are surprisingly easy to care for - but they do have specific requirements to keep them healthy. Fail in any one of these and, unfortunately, your pet will suffer. The chameleon's needs are simple and yet there is conflicting advice still being given to those buying their first animal.

The Beginner's Guide to Exotic Chameleon Care discusses the conditions needed to ensure that your chameleon will thrive in your care. The information is not focussed on one geographic location, so whether you are in Europe, Malaysia, Mexico or elsewhere, you will find the necessary details for good chameleon husbandry in this ebook.

All of the essential topics are discussed, including how to choose a healthy animal, the benefit of a varied diet, the critical need for adequate ultraviolet light and how to provide the right housing. Guidance on temperature, water and the use of supplements is given. The risks of metabolic bone disease are also covered in easy to understand terms.

David has been rearing and breeding chameleons for many years, and has done so in England, South Africa and Malaysia, giving him a unique insight into the different challenges that come from different locations.
